

Mövenpick Resort & Spa Boracay Celebrates the "Season of Love" with Special Romantic Packages and Weddings in Paradise

Boracay, Philippines (7 February 2019): Mövenpick Resort & Spa Boracay is inviting guests to celebrate the "Season of Love" in the Philippines, with a romantic tropical island retreat this Valentine's Day.

Nestled directly on the soft sands of Punta Bunga Cove, on Boracay's exclusive northwest tip, Mövenpick Resort & Spa Boracay is a haven of tranquillity and romance, allowing couples to re-connect with each other in paradise.

Magical moments can be shared in this exotic setting. During the day, couples can stroll along the pristine shore as the waves lap gently on the soft white sand, or plunge into the spectacular 3,300-square metre, multi-level swimming pool, with its swim-up bar.

Alternatively, partners can share soothing experiences at the Sagay Spa, which reopened in 2018 and offers a choice of rejuvenating couples' treatments.

Then, at the end of a blissful day, guests can enjoy exquisite evening meals at Brezza, the authentic Italian ristorante, The Market, the vibrant international restaurant, or Ssäm, which creates innovative Japanese, Chinese and Korean cuisine with a sense of culinary theatre. Alternatively, Sol Marina Beach Club lets couples chill out together with refreshing drinks during the day or after dark.

This idyllic ambience also makes Mövenpick Resort & Spa Boracay a dream destination for beachfront weddings. Punta Bunga Cove provides a stunning setting for couples seeking an unforgettable seafront ceremony, with space for up to 200 guests. In addition, the resort's glistening pools and lush landscaped gardens create options for all sizes of wedding, from intimate ceremonies to lavish celebrations.

With a dedicated team of professional planners, creative catering choices and exceptional entertainment, Mövenpick Resort & Spa Boracay will make every bride and groom's dream wedding come true. A choice of five wedding packages is available: Alya, Sehana, Tala, Luna and Sol.

"Boracay is a wonderfully romantic island at any time of year, but never more so than in February - the 'Season of Love'. Whether guests are seeking an enchanting couple's retreat, a memorable honeymoon or even a glittering beachfront wedding, Mövenpick Resort & Spa Boracay is the perfect destination," commented André Brulhart, General Manager, Mövenpick Resort & Spa Boracay.

Mövenpick Resort & Spa Boracay is currently showcasing its romantic credentials in the Season of Love, with a choice of sublime suites and villas, romantic meals and spa treatments.
