

onefinestay

onefinestay Expands South of France Portfolio with Addition of Cannes

London – May 2021 // onefinestay, the leading hospitality brand offering the world’s finest homes and villas with personalised service, is delighted to launch in Cannes and its surrounding area with 100 private villa rentals now available, from opulent old-style estates to serene contemporary retreats.

Esteemed guests are invited to enjoy a superior experience in some of the region’s most beautiful villas, all personally inspected by onefinestay using its strict criteria measuring quality, character and location. Every stay includes round-the-clock support and can be personally tailored by a dedicated onefinestay concierge; whether it’s a private charter along the Riviera, access to an exclusive beach club or in-villa spa treatments. onefinestay is also planning to expand further along the Côte D’Azur to Provence later this summer as part of the brand’s global villa expansion.

The renowned villa rental specialist is also pleased to introduce a selection of all-inclusive, fully staffed villas to its existing Saint-Tropez portfolio that are exclusively available through onefinestay. Highlights of the all-inclusive service include a private Michelin-trained chef to prepare daily breakfast, lunch and dinner with wine, an on-site villa host, daily housekeeping and laundry service as well as fully stocked drinks and snacks. Champagne and canapés will also be served on arrival.

“Brimming with beautiful beaches, world-class shopping and historic sites, not to mention its most famous film festival which is being held this July, Cannes is a long-time favourite destination amongst sunseeking families, celebrities, jetsetting friends and gastronomes who are looking for complete privacy, European charms and premium comforts,” said Amanda Dyjecinski, onefinestay’s Chief Brand and Marketing Officer. “Last year’s launch in Saint-Tropez encouraged us to expand further in the region and we are hopeful that as travel restrictions begin to ease, our guests will have a chance to see what our latest destinations and services have to offer.”

Bookings are now open for 2021 stays in the South of France. Weekly rates start from £9,000. Below, onefinestay selects its finest new villas in Cannes, Saint-Tropez and the surrounding area.

Villa Lansa, Super Cannes

onefinestay

Tucked away in the glamorous hills of Super Cannes, Villa Lansa is one of the largest private estates in the French Riviera. Comprising two separate villas that can sleep up to 18 guests, standout features include its own hammam, wine cellar, cinema room and two swimming pools. From £3,717 per night, two week minimum.

Villa Asga, Cannes

A striking contemporary villa perched in the hills of Cannes with quirky yet sophisticated architecture. This six-bedroom villa is just moments away from the lively glamorous city, providing a pocket of peacefulness. Villa Asga has a beautiful heated infinity pool, boasting stunning views of the dazzling sea. Smart poolside decking makes an idyllic spot for topping up tans on the soft sunbeds or taking an afternoon siesta. From £6,540 per night, thirty night minimum.

Villa Cana, Cassis

A crown jewel of the South of France portfolio is the beautiful Villa Cana in Cassis; the 12-bedroom mansion has welcomed guests including Virginia Woolf and Winston Churchill. Perched just above the crystal clear seas, the beach is just steps away and you can walk into the local village. From £3,100 per night, three night minimum.

Villa Post, Mougins

Villa Post is a former post office that has been lovingly transformed into a charming sun-soaked escape in the old village of Mougins. The six-bedroom villa features a gorgeous pool fringed by stone walls, verdant green plants and a grand arched entrance. It has a four-car garage as well as outdoor kitchen, fire pit and bocce court. From £3,030 per night, one week minimum.

onefinestay

Villa Vee, Saint-Tropez (exclusive to onefinestay)

Sprawling Villa Vee features a stunning landscaped garden, a luxuriously appointed main house with two large Master suites as well as an adjacent guest house with three ensuite bedrooms - perfect for friends or two families travelling together. The all-inclusive* villa comes with a private boat captain ready at any moment to whisk guests away to the Port of Saint-Tropez or nearby beach clubs. From £6,130 per night, one week minimum.

Villa Grand, Saint-Tropez (exclusive to onefinestay)

With breathtaking sea views, its close proximity to waterfront eateries and bars and exquisite interiors, the all-inclusive* Villa Grand is renowned for being one of the finest homes on the French Riviera. Dating back to the 1800's, it is the perfect spot for an 'off grid' escape, featuring a private helipad, large heated swimming pool with pool house and kitchen, private motor yacht, electric buggies, and a massage and fitness suite. From £10,470 per night, one week minimum.

- ENDS -

To download high-resolution images please visit the link HERE.

Note to editors: onefinestay's new fully-staffed, all-inclusive villas in Saint-Tropez include the following:

- Private Michelin-trained chef
- On-site villa host
- Daily housekeeping
- Laundry service
- Champagne and canapés served upon arrival
- Fully cooked breakfasts and lunches (6 days of 7)
- Four-course gourmet dinners (6 days of 7), including wine and a selection of award-winning local cheeses
- Luxury toiletries
- Non-alcoholic drinks & snacks stocked daily

About onefinestay

onefinestay

onefinestay redefines hospitality for guests by offering personalised stays and services in the finest homes and villas around the world. Founded in 2010 and now part of Accor, its 5000 curated homes and villas are hand-picked for their prime locations, space, character and comfort. From beachside estates to historic terraced houses and countryside villas, onefinestay helps guests find their ideal home-from-home, whilst every stay is professionally managed to ensure an effortless and enjoyable rental experience. This includes a personal welcome, 24/7 guest support, extensive housekeeping and the option to add tailored amenities and services such as grocery deliveries, private chefs, childcare, spa treatments and more. Whether travelling for leisure or work, its unique approach to short- and medium-term renting appeals to anyone looking for a private place to stay and a premium hospitality experience to match. This encompasses a diverse range of guests, from families and friends to celebrities. Find out more at onefinestay.com.

Media Contact

Natacha Tonisoo
Global PR and Communications Manager, onefinestay natacha.tonisoo@onefinestay.com