3rd November 2021, London – Today marks the unveiling of Fairmont Windsor Park and the first phase of a soft launch season ahead of a grand opening in January. Attended and opened by Sir Cliff Richard, Fairmont Windsor Park showcased all that the hotel will offer in an intimate soft opening ceremony. From its state-of-the-art spa and refined dining options, to its Royal Suites and exquisite event spaces, Fairmont Windsor Park is set to impress even the most seasoned traveller!

Elegantly set beside the 4,800 acres of Windsor's Great Park with its historical monuments and ancient forests, Fairmont Windsor Park is the most highly anticipated opening of the year. The brand-new countryside hotel is designed to reflect the site's heritage – where history and iconic elegance merge to create an outstanding destination. The grand opening of the hotel will be on 1st January, offering staycationers and discerning travellers access to a fresh, new destination for the year ahead.

An elegant countryside retreat boasting more than 200 stylish rooms and lavish suites – what sets it apart is its heart for wellbeing. The sprawling state-of-the-art spa is a destination in itself, with 18 treatment rooms, a six-person hammam, a multi-person cryotherapy chamber, a 20m indoor pod, a Himalayan salt room, a courtyard hydrotherapy vitality pod and a Japanese Ashiyu foot ritual bath. Offering a variety of sophisticated culinary concepts and a wealth of activities within the grounds, Fairmont Windsor Park is an idyllic, refined English countryside escape, within close proximity to Heathrow Airport and Central London.

In addition to this, The Faceble will launch at Fairmont Windsor Park, offering world class aesthetic, skin rejuvenating and private GP services including check-ups and consultations. The independent business has a holistic approach to wellness and rejuvenation and complements the hotel's comprehensive wellness concepts.

Suriinder Arora, Founder and Chairman of Arora Group, commented: "I am delighted and immensely proud to be here today to mark this event, unveiling our most exceptional development to date, Fairmont Windsor Park. Over the last decade, our estate has grown significantly, with this landmark hotel joining our other flagship properties. Our team is passionate about offering every guest the absolute highest standards of service. This is so much more than a hotel – the dining options, stunning spa and wellness facilities and event spaces on offer, all set in this beautiful country location, make it a remarkable and unmissable experience."

Sébastien Bazin, Chairman and CEO of Accor, said "We are proud to be working alongside Suriinder Arora and Arora Group on this exceptional new Fairmont destination in the UK. Fairmont Windsor Park is a significant opening for the UK luxury hotel market, offering an unrivalled holistic wellness offering with well-being considered at every level of the guest experience. The impressive estate and its proximity to Windsor, Heathrow and London coupled with Fairmont's commitment to service will ensure the grandest experiences for our guests."
