Ibis Styles Siem Reap brings design and affordability to Angkor gateway

The Group's first ibis Styles to debut in Siem Reap ibis Styles Siem Reap, set to open in June 2018, boasts a coveted location just one minute's walk from the Old Market and five minutes from the Night Market and Pub Street. ibis Styles Siem Reap will feature 112 rooms, all brightly decorated and perfectly equipped, with Cambodian touches to reflect the local culture.

Streets all-day-dining restaurant will offer generous servings of authentic Asian street food and international cuisine in a vibrant yet calm atmosphere, with special dishes for children and vegetarians as well as a De-light menu for those watching their waistlines.

General Manager Marc Dupuis says, "The new ibis Styles has the best location in town, with fabulous views from every side, but particularly those of the Siem Reap River from the rooftop swimming pool."

Patrick Basset, Chief Operating Officer for AccorHotels Upper Southeast and Northeast Asia, adds, “This opening marks the Group’s first ibis styles to be launched in Cambodia, to fill the demand for more affordable accommodation and increase our offerings in Cambodia to cover every segment from economy to luxury. As Cambodia’s tourism industry develops, we see significant growth potential in this country as well. With this milestone of the debut of the ibis Styles brand, we have also signed management contracts for two Novotels to open in Phnom Penh and Sihanoukville.”

“Every ibis Styles hotel has its own distinct personality and captures the local spirit of the location so it’s a very authentic brand for today’s budget-conscious traveller who doesn’t want to compromise on quality and design.”

Long renowned as the gateway to the temples of Angkor, there is much more to do in today’s Siem Reap with its fine restaurants, spas and shops, as well as the world-famous ‘Phare, The Cambodian Circus’.

ibis Styles Siem Reap is located 30 minutes from Siem Reap International Airport at Mondul 1 Village, Svay Dangkum Commune, Siem Reap City, Siem Reap Province, Cambodia.

To celebrate the opening, the hotel will offer a complimentary authentic Khmer set dinner for two persons with every booking of minimum three nights’ stay until end of September 2018, inclusive of complimentary breakfast and WiFi.
